Shaping the future of rugby in India

GMR Sports is building a professional rugby ecosystem in India through the Rugby Premier League (RPL), a franchise-based national competition developed in partnership with Rugby India. As the organising and marketing partner, GMR Sports is shaping league structures, global partnerships, and sustainable high-performance pathways to unlock the next generation of Indian rugby talent.

Our Rugby Portfolio

GMR Sports is building a sustainable high-performance rugby ecosystem — combining global stars, Indian talent and franchise-led competition to drive the sport's growth in India.

Rugby Premier League (RPL)

India's first professional rugby league, the Rugby Premier League (RPL) is promoted by GMR Sports in partnership with Rugby India. Featuring city-based franchises, international stars, and India's top talent, the league delivers fast-paced, broadcast-ready competition built for modern audiences.

There should be a write-up for season 2, and the image for season 2 should be used.

Pioneers of Professional Rugby in India

GMR launched the RPL to cultivate a sustainable ecosystem and grow a fun, fast-paced sport that is internationally accredited and Olympic-ready.

Global Talent Integration

International rugby stars compete alongside India's best players, raising the standard of the sport in the country.

Structured Player Pathways

Developing structured, high-performance pathways that take talent from grassroots and national programs to the professional game.
